INTERNET USAGE POLICY:

The Livingston County Public Library is proud to offer free Internet access to enhance information available to the public.

- To use the computers, everyone needs to check with a Librarian first. If one does not have a library card, personnel will provide them with a temporary passcode. This is just for 1-2, possibly 3 times use of the computers for passersby. The Library is not responsible for any information obtained, saved, or seen in accordance with the usage of the internet regardless of patron status or age. Each piece of paper is $0.10 if not a patron.
- Children under the age of twelve (12) must have a parent or legal guardian present, and in attendance with them at all times, to use the computer for Internet use.
- All patrons must accept the Internet Usage Policy statement before accessing the internet and/or utilizing a computer workstation.
- Library computer users must have an account in good standing. Patrons are not supposed to use the library computers if he or she has outstanding fines. Please speak with personnel about internet usage if you have a fine. In many cases, the patron is allowed to make a payment on the outstanding fine.
- Patrons CANNOT use another person's library card to access the Internet and/or to print (This includes a child's card). This action can result in loss of computer privileges.
- Because of limited workstation space, only 1 person per computer is allowed.
- Computer access is available on a first-come, first served basis with a 3 hour limit (in 1 ½ hour increments) each day for each patron. If there are no computers available, the patron will be asked to put his/her name on a computer waiting list.
- If utilizing the Library's wireless printers, please sign the 'Wireless Usage Sheet' located on the table near the printers.
- Internet users may not use the Internet or computers for any unethical or illegal activity, period.

INTERNET USE AGREEMENT:

I understand and will abide by the Livingston County Public Library's Internet Usage Policy. I further understand that any violation of the regulations is unethical and may constitute a criminal offense. Should I commit any violation, my access privileges will be revoked and appropriate legal action may be taken.
